JUROR – Carl Samson

Cincinnati based artist, Carl Samson, has been recognized internationally for his art. His work emphasizes color, light and atmosphere in the tradition of the American Impressionists. He is extremely proficient in all painting genres including plein air landscape, portraiture, figurative and still life. Carl was one of 5 plein air artists to work with the Union of Russian Artists in Moscow.

Carl's work has been the subject of articles in American Artist, International Artist, Artists' Magazine and American Painting Video Magazine. His paintings are included in private collections as well as collections of The Cincinnati Art Museum, Proctor and Gamble and various businesses, universities and arts organizations.

You can Google "images of Carl Samson's art" to see examples of his plein air work, also look for him on Facebook.
